

Enos Wilkins

Enos was born April 1, 1741 to David Wilkens Sr. and Annah Thomas in Middleton, Essex, Massachusetts. He married Jemima Smith and they had eight children. Enos served in the Massachusetts Militia under Captain Prince and Colonel Mansfield as a Private. He died 13 August 1828 in Middleton, Essex, Massachusetts. On the 19th of April, the men of Middleton, Massachusetts, were called from their beds to answer the alarm that can come from Lexington and Concord. Ten men went to the area for three days to fight against the British. Enos enlisted for a three-month period of time that year.