

Bernhardt Barnaby Beaver

Born September 9, 1751 in Oley Township, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania to Johann George Bieber and Anne Magdalene Bieber. He was married to Susanna Seltzer and they had nine children. His last name was also occasionally spelled 'Bieber'.

During the Revolutionary War, he served as a Private in the 1st Battalion, 4th Company of the Philadelphia County Militia under Captain Stephen Bloom who was at Valley Forge with Washington, and fought in the battles at Brandywine and Germantown.

Bernhardt Beaver died on April 1, 1801 in Gwynedd, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania.